

Monday Morning Meditation: Reader's Choice

Hi All,

Rather than writing something for this week's #MMM, I'm asking you to do the leg work and link up with your favorite verse and a reflection on what that verse means to you.

I'm looking forward to being fed by this awesome faith community and will be back next week (yes -- on Memorial Day!) with another regular installment of Monday Morning Meditations!

You mean the world -- keep writing and I'll keep visiting and finding much encouragement in your words.

xo,

Jane
